

4D Group

FrontPage Advanced

Who would benefit?

This course is for those who have a working knowledge of FrontPage 2000 and who need to learn the more advanced features to create Web pages and manage Web sites. Delegates should be familiar with the basics of FrontPage, Internet Explorer and should have Web surfing experience.

Objective

To gain practical experience working with frames, work with collected results and data, access databases with FrontPage, work with views, themes and borders and manage your Web.

Content

- Discuss individual's needs
- Design and build a site
- Web location and structure
- Create and modify framed pages
- Work with target frames
- Create forms and collect data
- Insert form fields
- Use FrontPage with databases
- Add media and functionality
- FrontPage-enabled-server components
- Insert advanced components and functions
- Reports, collaboration and tasks
- Introduction to Web security
- Animation, style sheets and themes
- Navigation view
- Introduction to dynamic HTML
- Use style sheets and styles
- Create and apply a custom theme
- Create and use shared borders
- Maintaining hyperlinks
- Open other Web editors from FrontPage

Duration

One day

Pre-requisites

It is assumed anyone attending this course has either attended or has the knowledge provided by FrontPage Introduction

Other Courses

FrontPage and ASP