

4D Group

Introduction to Marine War, Piracy and Strikes

Who would benefit?

This course has been designed for those who need an overview of the marine insurance market and an in-depth consideration of war, piracy, strikes and terrorism insurance for hull and cargo risks and what risks are excluded from the marine hull and cargo policy and how the cover can be obtained.

Objective

The objectives of the course are to:

- Explain the make-up and operation of the marine market.
- Understanding what war, piracy, strikes and terrorist risk are excluded by a marine hull and cargo policy.
- Understand how to cover war, piracy, strikes and terrorist risks for marine hull and cargo policies.

Content

- The marine market
 - Who writes marine business
 - Where the main markets are
 - The income produced to these markets.
- The Waterborne Agreement and its effect
- War, Piracy, Strikes, and Terrorism exclusion Clauses used by the market.
- War, Piracy, Strikes and Terrorism insurance cover
 - What is available in the market and how cover is purchased.

Duration

Half day