

4D Group

Visual Basic

Who would benefit?

This course is for non-programmers who will need to use Visual Basic and learn the fundamentals of programming in the process.

Objective

To understand the principles of how to create a system that provides fast and effective solutions to pressing business needs.

Content

- Discuss individual's needs
- Introduction to the design environment
- Explore data types
- VB procedure and functions
- Work with forms
- Use command driven controls
- Create and use control arrays
- Debugging and tracing execution
- Error trapping
- Collections and dictionaries
- Application information
- Screen and active objects
- Data bound controls

Duration

Between three and five days